SUBJECT UPHILL/UDROWSY		ABSTRACT
ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES		MICROFILM

EGMA 55443, 11 July 1961

1. Attached for your information and for passing to UPHILL if you so desire are results of a check which was made in Cincinnati aimed at obtaining information on UDROWSY's aunt, Magdelein NEUHAUSSER, and any indication of money transfers to UDROWSY or his wife. The report provides the birthdate of Paul R. NEUHAUSSER and full details of the latter's last will and testament, but contains no references to a bequest of any sort or any real clarification of the identity of Otto and Charlotte HOFMANN.

2. Thus far, we have attempted to achieve our ends through appropriate KUBARK field offices, which have been enjoined against taking action of any sort which might come to the attention of Magdelein NEUHAUSSER, her son or any other persons who might report to her. Checks performed within these limits have had to be restricted largely to examination of public records, which in this case revealed the fact of Paul NEUHAUSSER's death and led to efforts to get at Probate Court records. There would appear to be no secure way at present of gaining access to bank records in Cincinnati but now that the banks of probable interest have been identified, we will explore the matter further. It may also be possible to obtain information from the lawyer who handled all details of the probate action.

3. Requests for information which were sent to ODENVY and ODURGE in 1960 on the name Lemt NEUHAUSSER were negative. New trace requests which have now been sent on Magdelein and Paul R. NEUHAUSSER are still outstanding.

4. According to the recollection of persons now here, UDROWSY made no effort to see or visit any relatives while in PEPRIME with UJDRACO VII. You may have checked on this point, but we are wondering whether UDROWSY made any entry on the questionnaire which he filled out in connection with UJDRACO VII on the specific point of whether he had relatives in PEPRIME.
